

+	-	?
You are from Dülmen.	You are not from Dülmen.	Are you from Dülmen?
We are at school.	We are not at school.	Are you at school?
They are at home.	They are not at home.	Are they at home?
He is a student.	He isn't a student.	Is he a student?
She is a good singer.	He isn't a good singer.	Is he a good singer?
He is a good carpenter.	He isn't a good carpenter.	Is he a good carpenter?
It is a nice day, today.	It isn't nice day, today.	Is it a nice day, today?
You are at a hotel.	You aren't at a hotel.	Are you at a hotel?
The blackbird is very big.	The blackbird is not very big.	Is the blackbird very big?

+	-	?
We're not alone.	We are alone.	Are we alone?
It`s very funny.	It isn't very funny.	Is it very funny?
It is loud because they work.	It isn't loud.	Why is it so loud?
They're with their siblings.	They aren't with their siblings.	Are they with their siblings?
I'm an angry person.	I'm not an angry person.	Am I an angry person?
The man's first name is Peter.	The man's first name isn't Peter.	What is the man's first name?
She's a little bit sad, today.	She isn't a little bit sad, today.	Is she a little bit sad, today?
They are enemies.	They`re not enemies.	Are they enemies?
This is all about English.	This isn't all about English.	What is this all about?